MEDIA INVITE

MINISTER NYHONTSO TO CONFER CERTIFICATES OF QUALIFICATION TO 108 NARYSEC YOUTH WHO COMPLETED SKILLS DEVELOPMENT TRAINING WITH PRIVATE SECTOR PARTNERS

9 SEPTEMBER 2024

The Minister of Land Reform and Rural Development, Mr Mzwanele Nyhontso, and the Minister of Higher Education and Training, Dr Nobuhle Nkabane, will preside over the ceremony to award certificates of qualification to 108 National Rural Youth Service Corps (NARYSEC) participants who completed various qualifications under the NARYSEC Programme. The event will take place at the South West Gauteng TVET College in Soweto.

The 108 learners from the department's NARYSEC Programme have completed comprehensive skills development programmes in Security Services, Accommodation Services, System Development, Poultry Production, Film and Television Production Operations at institutions of higher learning, including Bidvest Gijima Training Academy and South West Gauteng, Letaba, Sekhukhune and Capricorn TVET colleges.

Since its inception in 2010 the NARYSEC Programme, which is one of the department's flagship youth skills development programmes, has benefited thousands of young people from across the country. The vision of NARYSEC is to capacitate unemployed rural youth with various skills and to facilitate their transition to meaningfully contribute towards vibrant, equitable and sustainable economies.
